

“Our scope at The University of the Arts is as broad as our student base. With nearly 300 undergrad students dancing daily 8 a.m. to 11 p.m — from barefoot to pointe work — we need the best floor for durability, performance and maintenance. The students, the dean, the faculty and I are thrilled with our choice to go with Harlequin Floors. I’ve gotten email after email from our students saying ‘Thank you for the floor!’ It makes a huge difference in the quality of the dance experience for the students and the faculty.”
